WILSHIRE 5000® BROAD U.S. STOCK MARKET BENCHMARK HITS ALL-TIME HIGH WITH $150 GAIN, RECOVERY MILESTONE MARKS $12.8 TRILLION GAIN SINCE COVID-19 MARCH LOW

SANTA MONICA, Calif., August 17, 2020 – The Wilshire 5000 Total Market IndexSM, definitive measure of the broad U.S. stock market, today surpassed the February 19 record high prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, ending at 34,632.24 for the day, up $150 billion and 0.45 percent, according to Wilshire Associates (Wilshire®).

The Wilshire 5000 Total Market IndexSM has soared since the March low, rising 54.17 percent, or approximately $12.8 trillion.

First introduced in 1974, the Wilshire 5000 is considered the most comprehensive measure for the total U.S. stock market, comprised of all U.S. securities with a primary listing in the United States with readily available prices. For more information about the Wilshire 5000, click here.

About Wilshire Associates

Wilshire is a leading global financial services firm, dedicated to improving outcomes for investors worldwide. An independent firm since its founding in 1972, Wilshire advises on over $1 trillion in assets and manages $72 billion in assets. Specializing in innovative investment solutions, consulting services and multi-asset analytics, Wilshire serves more than 500 institutional and intermediary clients worldwide from 10 offices around the globe. For more information, please visit www.wilshire.com or follow us on Twitter: @WilshireAssoc

# #